

The sky was the limit and Howard Knight takes top awards at the 2013 Harley-Davidson Museum Custom Bike Shows - 110th Anniversary Celebration and the AMD Invitational Custom Bike Show

Commissioned to create the best and, after a total of 900 hours in design and leather artistry, Howard Knight's work wins the AMD People's Choice Award and the Harley-Davidson Museum Custom Bike Show Best of Class in Full Dress Bikes at the Harley-Davidson 110th Anniversary Celebration, Labor Day Weekend 2013 - Milwaukee, WI.

THE "PEANUT" BIKE WINNER - BEST IN FULL DRESS BIKES

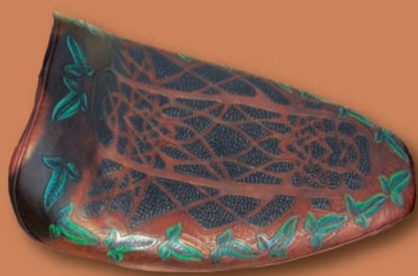

Howard Knight, pictured here with Ted Fleisner, owner of the winner of Harley-Davidson's Best in Full Dress Bikes. It was Knight's art in leather to ride that brought the winning trophy presented by Bill Davidson.

Even Harley's Director of Product Development stopped by to chat and see his work in person. It solidly set a new standard in custom leather work for motorcycles!

THE "HOBBIT" BIKE - AMD PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARD

Over 100,000 riders from around the world to came to celebrate 110 years of Harley-Davidson for four days. Labor Day Weekend 2013 - Milwaukee, WI.
